

ENTRY LEVEL X-STAND

Valid to December 31, 2010

The Entry Level X-Stand certainly makes a statement with its striking good looks and lightweight framework. The X-Stand is so incredibly light that you could suspend it from the ceiling. It also packs away into a compact little container, so you'll hardly notice when you carry it.

The graphic banner has eyelets in each corner that simply clip onto the framework so setup and graphic changover is a real breeze. The X Stand is perfect for product launches and short events.

Size: 600 wide x 1550mm high.
